

William Powell Frith R.A.

Plaque 55

The Plaque at Aldfield.

As well as the Harrogate Brown plaque on Skipton Road, there is a Blue plaque commemorating Frith in his home village of Aldfield. The Plaque is on the corner of the church grounds wall, just up from Fountains Abbey.

Inscription reads:

“William Powell Frith R.A. Artist 1819 - 1909

Son of the House Steward to Mrs Lawrence of Studeley Royal, Frith was born in Aldfield on the 9th January 1819 and lived here from 1819 until 1826, when the family left to manage the Dragon Hotel, Harrogate.

Frith left for London in 1835 ‘to make my fortune’ “

Acknowledgement – Map copyright OpenStreetmap contributors.

Author: Chris Dicken May 2024